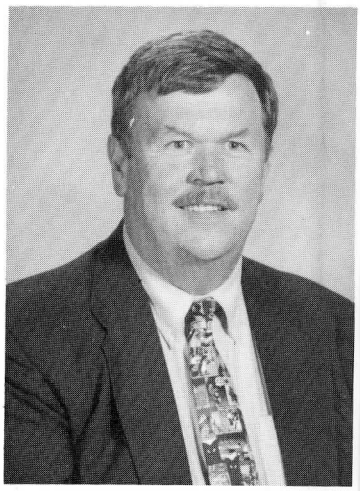
Dear Graduates:

Offering you some words that you'll find meaningful is not easy. Most thoughts provided for graduates have been stated many times so originality becomes an issue. I decided to suggest some thoughts that have provided guidance for me in the hope they may do the same for you.

Happiness is not gauged by how much "stuff" one can collect.
If work becomes drudgery, change jobs. An unhappy employment situation will make you miserable.
Continue your education but realize a great deal of what we learn does not require a classroom or a book.
It's easy to have numerous acquaintances, but true, lifelong friends are few.
Maintain a strong work ethic but be sure to balance it with your family's needs.
It's much easier to say "yes" than "no".
Value, love and respect grandparents and parents. You'll experience a permanent sense of loss when they are gone.
There is a supreme being.
Financiers will tell you the most important decision you'll make is purchasing a home. The most important decision you'll make is selecting a spouse.
There is no training for it and the wards and heartaches are many. However, being a parent is the best, most rewarding and difficult job one can have.

I trust and hope you'll find these thoughts helpful. My very best to you in all you attempt.
Kent E. Rosberg, Superintendent



To the Members of the Class of 2002,

Congratulations on the successful completion of your High School career. The past four years have challenged you in many ways. During that time you have achieved success, met challenges, and forged relationships that will last a lifetime. Undoubtedly, when you gather for future reunions, your conversations will drift back to many of the special times and friendships you have enjoyed during your days here at Telstar. This book will likely provide many memories for you throughout the rest of your lives.

For our part, we have endeavored to provide you with educational opportunities and guidance that will help you to achieve whatever goals you have established for your future. I have no doubt that you will do us all proud.

On a personal note, I feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to reacquaint myself with many of you this year. Few principals have the opportunity to welcome students to Kindergarten and present them with a well-deserved diploma thirteen years later!

Thank you for a job well done! Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

David W. Murphy, Ed.D.
Principal

From: Carroll Higgins

Congratulations to the Class of 2002. As I sit writing this, it has been a little more than a week since the attack on the World Trade Center in New York, and the Pentagon. This tragedy has had a profound effect on our lives. It has been moving to witness how people have come together to support each other during this crisis.

You live in the greatest country in the world. Take what you have learned at Telstar and build upon that base to do with your life whatever makes you happy. You have the freedom to pursue a career that will be meaningful and enjoyable. If your life's work brings you pleasure, then it is really not work at all.

Whatever you do with your life, take time to be with your family, for family is what matters most when all's said and done. Take time to cultivate friendships whenever possible for they make life interesting. Take time to lend a helping hand for you may need one yourself one day. Take care of your health by eating smart and getting exercise every day, for without a healthy you, you cannot do the things that make a difference for your country, your community, your family and your friends.

Dear Graduating Class of 2002,

You are stepping forth into a world that has changed significantly for us all. The tragedy that has befallen so many Americans in recent months has reshaped our lives in ways yet to be comprehended. The uncertainty of venturing forth from familiar settings has been magnified and feelings intensified. You occupy a space in time and place that most graduating seniors do not. Your challenges are great! The legacy left to you by others who have risen to challenges in times of crisis is just as great!

Have faith in your strengths, strive to overcome your weaknesses and step forward with confidence. You have earned your place in the world! You need not be denied opportunities or fear to take advantage of them. Your contributions to your world may seem insignificant. They are not! A smile, a kind word, a generous act, a hug, an apology, a job well done . . . speak volumes throughout a lifetime. Our lives are often marked by events. President Kennedy's assassination, Neil Armstrong's walk on the moon, the crumbling of the Berlin Wall, and the attack on the twin towers of the New York World Trade Center are such markers. However, the sum and substance of the way we live each and every day makes the difference. It is the small details of our lives that provide the richness and give meaning to life.

Graduation is an event, a personal marker, and a step forward into the unknown! You have successfully completed the first leg of your journey. My wish for you is to continue rising to the challenges of life with joy, perseverance, courage, integrity and humility.

With all my respect,

Elizabeth LaVallee

Can you dig it . . . It seemed like just yesterday that I walked trough the front doors for the very first time. The time just flew by as if the years were days. I remember hearing the occasional swears and watching the fights. Having friend's come and go, meeting new students and teachers. Thinking back I have faint memories but I remember funny sayings and expressions like: "that's it aylward", tubby to fat, pudgy, pinky, spamalopian, magillacuddy muff a cuff, $pu^^<!<le and other inside jokes. Also remembering the friends I have: JH, JH, JH, EH, AH, MG, AJ, MP, JW and MS. Knowing the fact that ever since our grade class came to Telstar we moved or retired any English teacher we've had. Well we don't know about MR. Newell. SO if I had one thing to say to my fellow classmates is have a good life and see you at the first reunion. If ya smmmeeeeeellllllllllll what the Friel is cookin.

First of all I would like to thank the teachers and all of my friends and family for helping me through school. I wasn't sure I would make it. I like to talk and hang out with my friends J.M, A.K, D.W, K.H, L.N, K.H, I hope I'll see you in the future, I hope we'll stay friends forever. I also like when my friends were there for me. But I don't like homework, I didn't like it when 3 of my best friends J.M, A.K, D.W, dropped out of Telstar and went to night school. Memories: D.H's blue Subaru and him blaring his system D.H's door, J.H slows down driving by J.M's house, the Volvo, My SLIM FAST. J.M and I with E.M on the trampoline. J.M, T.B, and I at letter "S" with the 2 guys. A.K's muffler, L.N. cut your hair! T.K. brake up with make-up girl. K.H, L.M, don't forget the stalker M.C. L.N. Come and stalk anyone, ok.
K.H. try not forget W.S. nose. K.H, we're still Princess in our book, and L.N, you're still an angel in your book. The Fryeburg Fair with J.M, M.D, A.K, and I this year. Well GOOD LUCK IN THE FUTURE, J.M, A.K., D.W, K.H, L.N, K.H, C.D, M.L, A.H, J.A, and to the other people I forgot SORRY! I will miss you all. And to the class of 2002 GOOD LUCK IN THE FUTURE.

a creative heart, obsessed with satisfying This dormant and uncaring society u have given them the stars at night and u have given them Bountiful Bouquets of Sunflowers But 4 u there is only contempt and though u pour yourself into that frame and present it so proudly this world could not accept your masterpieces from the heart So on that starry night u gave 2 us and u took away from us The one thing we never acknowledged your life I have chosen this poem because on the night we graduate the school will take from us the one thing we never acknowledged till now. They took the only life we have known & gave us a new one. I will miss you all. "From my stone pillow I have dreamed dreams of the mortal world above. I have heard its voices, its new music, as lullabies as I lay in my grave. I have envisioned its fantastical discoveries, I have known the timeless sanctum of my thoughts. And though it shut me out with its dazzling forms, I long for one with the strength to roam it fearlessly, to ride the Devil's road through its heart with me. Now I say dream as each dream is your last and never wake until you hear hell's bells."

First of all, I'd like to thank my Dad. He kept me motivated, taught me right from wrong, to be responsible for what I do in life and for the respect he gave me. Also my Mom, same thing as Dad except she's a bit nuttier. But she's still cool. My brother, even thought we don't get along as well, he still helped me out here and there. Special thanks to my boys, Matt and Adam for being my "dogs". Anytime I needed someone to kick around or wanted to hang-out around town, I could call on them. Big thanks to my teachers. For keeping me on track of all the work I have done for them in the past and present and teaching me something new all the time, from Mr. Morton to everyone else in the building. Well that's it for me here. I'm off to college to become a machinist for the rest of my natural life making machine parts and lots and lots of money. Peace!

TO MY DAUGHTER

You're a precious thought to me,
A treasure to my heart.
You're a daughter who has played
A very special part.

All the beauty life can give
Is summarized in you.
I am proud and I am glad
That life presented you.

In your own compelling way
I see that you're unique.
I am confident you'll reach
The very goals you seek.

Your growth and progress always are
So charming to behold.
It is such a wondrous thing
To watch your life unfold.

All my love and all my hopes
Give time a special hue.
All my days and all my years
Are full because of you.
— Bruce B. Wilmer

I Love You Meg!
Love, MOM

Kelly
We've been through a lot together,
Ever since I can remember.

From playing Barbie dolls,
To bats and hitting balls.

You've been there through good and bad,
And especially when I was sad.

A real true friend you'll always be,
And I hope you never forget me.

Congratulations, I love you and remember

Always believe in the impossible
No matter how dumb it may seem,
Don't be afraid of trying something new
Because life is much too short to waste,
And way too short to only dream!
Love, Michelle
Congratulations! Love, Alice and Ronnie

CONGRATULATIONS NIKKI

Words can't even begin to tell you how proud I am of you. You have grown up into a beautiful bright young lady with a lot of ambition. Your perseverance is admirable and will bring you far in life. I know you will succeed in whatever you do. But most of all Nicole, I want you to be happy and to live life to the fullest.

With all of my love,
Mom

Dear Mariah,
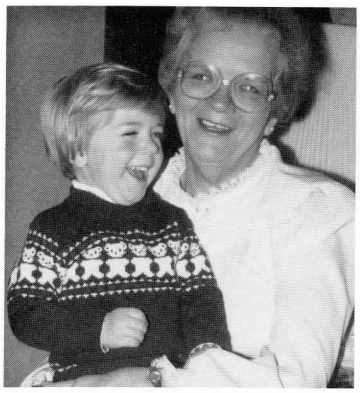
Words can't express how very proud of you I am! You are such a kind, warm, funny and beautiful young lady. Watching you "out on the field" or "out on the court", I am so proud to say "that's my girl right there!". You carry yourself with such grace and determination—I know that you will succeed at whatever you choose to do. I wish you a world of happiness!

Love always,
Mom



Jeremy,
We are very proud of you. You are a very special person. Your sense of humor and positive atittude have brightened many of our days. May you continue to look on the bright side and have a very succesful future. We will always be here for you. We love you.

Love,
All of your family

Nicole,
Your grandmother once told me that she hoped I had a child as bad as I was. Thank God she was wrong!!!!!

Congratulations
Love, Dad

Congratulations Bion
Congratulations Mike

It seems so unimaginable that graduation day is here
It doesn't seem that long ago that you were so little,
and we held you so near . . . .
It feels like yesterday, your first touch, your first smile, your first tooth, your first steps, your first set of wheels, and your first number book . . .
It seems time has crept upon us, it just doesn't seem possible that graduation day is here

We are so proud of both of you and of your many accomplishments,
We are proud of the steps you have taken towards your future
We are proud of you as brothers and of your friendship
We are so very proud of you as individuals

Believe in your heart to guide you, you know what feels right believe in goodness, hope, love, believe in yourself.
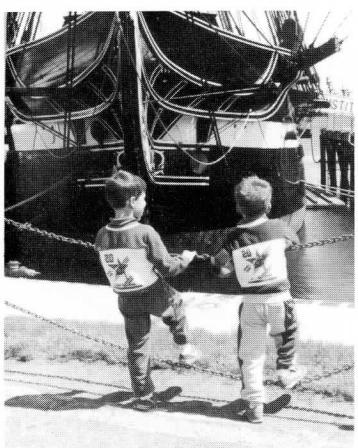
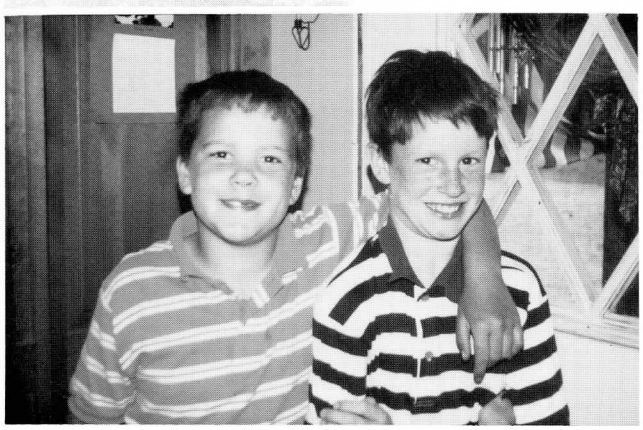
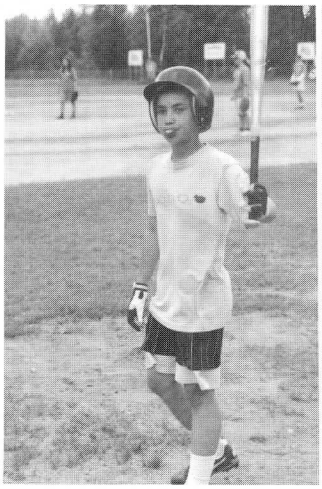
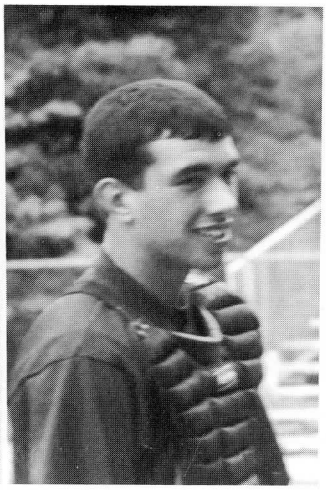
Believe in your dreams, and the many possibilities of tomorrow, and always believe in that voice within you.
The future is yours . . . . . .

CONGRATULATIONS!
Love Dad, Mom and Sarah









"K"

Kaleb,
We're so proud of all your accomplishments so far! We've enjoyed watching you in every sporting event and school activities! It's been a pleasure seeing you develop into a strong, silent leader.
Whatever road you choose, we're always here for you! You have become a strong, kind, hard working, handsome young man with a sense of humor also. All qualities for success! Congratulations!

Keep smiling!
We Love You
Mom, Dad, Jess & Kinsey

Bethany,
Seventeen and a half years have gone by so fast. When you were born, everyone was so glad to have a baby girl, mom, dad, brothers and sisters. Don't forget you will always be our baby girl. Congratulations and best of luck in whatever you may do.

Lots of Love,
Your family

Nikki
Congratulations! We are very proud of you! We love you very much!

Faculty

This year is it the senior class' pleasure to honor Dr. Murphy with the yearbook dedication. As our new principal, you have created a positive atmosphere for the students by adding plants to the halls, repainting the bathrooms and more. Most seniors have had the delight of knowing you as a principal in elementary school. Some of us even have a piece of your tie to remember you by.

Your messages on our report cads are encouraging and supportive. As our principal, you have been accessible and open-minded. You took the time to meet with every one of us to hear how we felt about changing school appearance and spirit. You helped us with senior privileges and had us take a leadership role in the high school. We thank you for all of the great things you've done for not only the senior class, but for Telstar. Good luck to you in the future!

Sincerely,
The Class of 2002

Telstar Golf finished with an overall record of 5-7. The team showed steady improvement though the course of the season. The Rebels shot their lowest total of the year in the first round of the playoffs in defeating Livermore Falls by a 4-3 score. In the MVC championships, the Rebels, led by Jordi Walker's 85, Brian Zinchuk's 89 and Mike Swan's 89 tied for second place in the conference championships. A spot in State Team Championships was barely missed by the tiebreaker rule. In the State Invitational Golf Championships held at Natanis Golf Course in Vassalboro, Jordi Walker shot a round of 90 to tie for 10th place. Walker earned the invitation with his third place finish in the MVC championships.
